THE DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE IS AN EQUAL OPPORTUNITY EMPLOYER

Summary of Revisions:

This revision provides information on the process by which External applicants [Current non-Air Force federal civilian employees; those eligible for movement within or appointment into the competitive service, or those eligible under special appointing authorities such as the Veterans Recruitment Appointment (VRA), Veterans Employment Opportunity Act of 1998 (VEOA) or 30% or more disabled veterans] will apply for External (non-competitive) Air Force Personnel Center (AFPC) vacancy announcements.

Effective 4 Sep 07, the AFPC began a new automated recruitment process for all External vacancy announcements (except for vacancy announcements for positions serviced by Bolling AFB, Washington DC). The AFPC will no longer post these announcements on the AFPC Employment website or accept resumes or self-nominations for job consideration for External vacancies via the AFPC Resume Writer. In order to receive consideration, applicants must apply directly for vacancies in which they are interested using the procedures contained in the "How to Apply" section of each vacancy announcement. For additional information on application procedures, go to the AFPC Employment website at <https://ww2.afpc.randolph.af.mil/resweb/>.

The revision also eliminates the requirement to "pre-position" resumes in the AFPC resume database prior to self-nominating for external vacancy announcements for positions serviced by Bolling AFB, Washington DC.

Privacy Statement:

The Office of Personnel Management and other Federal agencies rate applicants for Federal jobs under the authority of sections 1104, 1302, 3301, 3304, 3320, 3361, 3393, and 3394 of title 5 of the United States Code. We need the information requested in this brochure and in the associated vacancy announcements to evaluate your qualifications. Other laws require us to ask about citizenship, military service, etc. We request your Social Security Number (SSN) under the authority of Executive Order 9397 in order to keep your records straight; other people may have the same name. As allowed by law or Presidential directive, we use your SSN to seek information about you from employers, schools, banks, and others who know you. Your SSN may also be used in studies and computer matching with other Government files, for example, files on unpaid student loans. If you do not give us your SSN or any other information requested, we cannot process your application, which is the first step in getting a job. Also, incomplete addresses and ZIP Codes will slow processing.

We may give information from your records to: training facilities; organizations deciding claims for retirement, insurance, unemployment or health benefits; officials in litigation or administrative proceedings where the Government is a party; law enforcement agencies concerning violations of law or regulation; Federal agencies for statistical reports and studies; officials of labor organizations recognized by law in connection with representing employees; Federal agencies or other sources requesting information for Federal agencies in connection with hiring or retaining, security clearances, security or suitability investigations, classifying jobs, contracting, or issuing licenses, grants, or other benefits; public or private organizations including news media that grant or publicize employee recognition and awards; and the Merit Systems Protection Board, the Office of Special Counsel, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, the Federal Labor Relations Authority, the National Archives, the Federal Acquisition Institute, and congressional offices in connection with their official functions.

We may also give information from your records to: prospective nonfederal employers concerning tenure of employment, civil service status, length of service, and date and nature of action for separation as shown on personnel action forms of specifically identified individuals; requesting organizations or individuals concerning the home address and other relevant information on those who might have contracted an illness or been exposed to a health hazard; authorized Federal and nonfederal agencies for use in computer matching; spouses or dependent children asking whether an employee has changed from self-and-family to self-only health benefits enrollment; individuals working on a contract, service, grant, cooperative agreement or job for the Federal Government; non-agency members of an agency's performance or other panel; and agency-appointed representatives of employees concerning information issued to an employee about fitness for duty or agency-filed disability retirement procedures.

Getting Started

Determining your “Candidate Source”

Internal: - You are currently a permanent Department of the Air Force civil service employee, including those on Leave without Pay (LWOP). Internal applicants may self-nominate (apply) for any vacancy announcement that indicates current permanent Air Force employees may apply (refer to Step 3 on pages 14 & 15). As an Internal applicant, you may also self-nominate for External vacancy announcements if eligible under one or more of the eligibility categories listed on pages 4-10. You are not required to submit a resume into the AFPC resume database (RESUMIX) unless applying for vacancy announcements posted on the AFPC Employment website that are opened to applicants with “External” noncompetitive appointment eligibilities (refer to Steps 1 thru 3 on pages 12 thru 15) for locations serviced by Bolling AFB, Washington DC. If you are interested in applying for External vacancy announcements for all other positions including those for overseas locations, you must apply directly for the vacancies in which you are interested using the new automated recruitment process effective 4 September 2007. These procedures are listed in the “How to Apply” section of each vacancy announcement.

Note: If you are serving on a “Term” appointment, your Tenure is 3 (See Block 24 of your SF 50, Notification of Personnel Action.) You are not on a permanent appointment since you are currently employed on a Term, Status Quo, Indefinite, or Provisional appointment in the competitive service; or currently employed on an Indefinite appointment, overseas family member appointment, overseas limited appointment (OSL), or other appointment with time limitation of more than one year, or you have completed one year of continuous service in the excepted service.

As a Tenure 3 employee, you are considered an “External” applicant and “Internal” only for employee benefits purposes if using the AFPC Secure and Employment Websites to apply for external vacancy announcements for positions serviced by Bolling AFB, Washington DC. You must log on as an “Internal” applicant and you must maintain a current resume on file. This will allow you to self-nominate for positions open to “External” applicants and ensure you receive consideration for other employment.

If you are interested in applying for External vacancy announcements for all other positions including those in overseas locations, you must apply directly for the vacancies in which you are interested using the new automated recruitment process effective 4 September 2007 and the procedures contained in the “How to Apply” section of each vacancy announcement.

External: - You are not a current permanent Air Force Appropriated Fund civil service employee or you are a permanent employee currently on Leave without Pay (LWOP) who has a permanent change of station (PCS) to a foreign location with a military or civilian sponsor.

Refer to the following eligibility category tables to determine your eligibility to apply.

Note: You may be considered an “External Applicant” if you are an Internal Air Force employee eligible to apply under one of the eligibility categories listed in the AFPC Job Kit.

How to Determine Your Eligibility to Apply Use the tables below to assist in determining your eligibility

To be considered for federal employment, you must self-identify or list your eligibility category when completing supplemental data question number 2 (see page 19). Due to regulatory requirements covering federal employment, we must collect certain information to determine the proper way to refer you for consideration. The Human Resource Specialist uses this information to determine if you meet the regulatory eligibility requirements for the appointment authorities listed in the vacancy announcement under “Who may apply.” You may be eligible for more than one category so ensure that you select all eligibilities that presently apply to you. AFPC is not responsible for erroneous eligibilities that you list or those that you fail to list. For applicants interested in vacancies in foreign locations, refer to pages 10 and 19 for additional overseas unique employment eligibilities/format.

Step 1: Submitting Your Resume

To be considered for civil service employment opportunities announced on the AFPC Employment Website for positions serviced by Bolling AFB, you must have a resume and supplemental data on file when self-nominating for External Vacancy Announcements.

There is a three-step process for applying for vacancy announcements advertised on the AFPC Civilian Employment website.

Your first step is to submit a properly formatted resume along with the required supplemental data (Refer to pages 17-22.) "Internal" applicants are not required to submit resumes to self-nominate, but must have a resume on file to receive consideration for vacancy announcements posted on the AFPC Employment website that opened are to applicants with "External" noncompetitive appointment eligibilities. To submit your resume, we highly recommend that you use our on-line Resume Writer. If you are unable to use the Resume Writer and submit your resume by any means, please ensure you format your resume as described in this Job Kit (See page 6 for mailing instructions). There are numerous Federal agencies and each has its own format and process for accepting resumes. Other formats are not compatible with our automated system and may result in your loss of job consideration. We will not accept the Federal Optional Application for Employment, Optional Form 612 or any other improperly formatted resume.

Resume Time Lines

Your resume is placed into our automated resume database inventory system (RESUMIX) where it remains active for 1-year unless you are selected for a position. If you are a current permanent Air Force civil service employee, your RESUMIX resume will not expire as long as you do not have a break in service.

- If you submit your resume or make an update through the on-line AFPC Resume Writer, we will normally process your resume into the Resume Writer immediately. Using the Resume Writer is the quickest and easiest way to submit a resume
- If you submit your resume through any means other than the on-line AFPC Resume Writer, it takes approximately 5 business days (excluding Saturday and Sunday) from the date of receipt to process and verify your resume since these resumes require special handling and scanner processing.

Please carefully read the guidance on preparing your resume. Failure to follow these instructions may result in your resume not being processed and the loss of job consideration. Your resume must completely describe your work experience and education since that information is used to determine if you meet the experience requirements and possess the knowledge, skills, and abilities (KSAs) for the position(s). Each vacancy announcement will list the KSAs required for the respective position. You may have only one resume on file in the AFPC resume database at any time (the one most recently submitted). It is used to consider you for all vacancies for which you self-nominate. A sample resume and supplemental data is available for your review on pages 20-21. The supplemental data questions and overseas unique data are on pages 18 and 19.

CAUTION: DO NOT INCLUDE CLASSIFIED INFORMATION IN YOUR RESUME

Submitting Your Resume and Supplemental Data

There are two ways to submit your resume and supplemental data. TIP! Only submit your resume and supplemental data using one of the following two methods. If you submit your resume using both methods at the same time, the resume and supplemental data we last receive will be the most current on file.

- 1) Resume Writer (Recommended Method): Again, we highly recommend you prepare your resume and supplemental data electronically using the AFPC Resume Writer at:
<https://ww2.afpc.randolph.af.mil/resweb/resume/resume.htm>

Some advantages are:

- On-line instructions with instant submission and processing
- Resume Writer properly formats your resume
- Minimizes errors
- User-friendly
- Easy and efficient
- On-line access (update view, edit, print)

By using the Resume Writer, your resume is processed directly into our database. You will then be able to update, view, edit, and print your resume at any time. This feature is not available for hard copy resumes you submit to us by mail.

TIP! Many applicants find it useful to prepare their resume as a word processing document or text file first and then "copy and paste" it into the Resume Writer.

----- OR -----

2) Regular Mail (Alternate Method): Submit your resume and supplemental data to:

HQAFPC/DPSOCR
Attn: Recruitment Service Center
550 C Street West, Suite 57
Randolph AFB TX 78150-4759

Note: We will not accept resumes mailed in government postage paid envelopes. Use of postage paid official envelopes is a violation of OPM and postal regulations. Once submitted, resumes become property of the Department of Air Force and will not be returned or copied.

Reminder: You will not be able to view, update, edit, or print your resume on line if you submitted your resume using any means other than the AFPC Resume Writer.

PIN Numbers and User IDs

External Applicants - (Mailed Resumes Only) - Your initial PIN to access your AFPC Employment website account will be the last 4 digits of your home phone number. You will be required to change your PIN to a random six-digit numeric PIN that is not part of your social security number or date of birth.

Note: If you submitted your resume using Resume Writer, the system will automatically prompt you to create a 6 digit PIN.

Internal Applicants – As an Internal employee, you must access the AFPC Secure Web site with your Common Access Card (CAC) or User ID and Password. If you have not established a USERID and Password, follow the instructions on the AFPC Secure Web site at <https://www.afpc.randolph.af.mil/afpcsecure/Default.asp>.

Step 2: Search for a Job

The second step is to review job vacancy announcements in which you are interested on our website at <http://ww2.afpc.randolph.af.mil/afjobs> or by telephone at 1-800-616-3775. The body of the announcement will contain the specific location of the vacancy, information on who may apply as well information on job duties and qualification requirements.

There are three ways to search for vacancies:

- 1) Conduct your own job search thru the AFPC Civilian Employment website at <http://ww2.afpc.randolph.af.mil/afjobs>.
- 2) Subscribe to our Civilian Announcement Notification System (CANS) by registering at <https://ww2.afpc.randolph.af.mil/resweb/cans.htm>. You will input your search criteria and receive an e-mail notice when a vacancy matching your criteria becomes available. This is ONLY a notice of job vacancies. After you receive an e-mail notice and you decide you're interested in the job, you must go to the AFPC Civilian Employment website and self-nominate to receive consideration.
- 3) If you do not have access to the World Wide Web, you can listen to job vacancies thru the AFPC Interactive Voice Response System (IVRS) (See page 25 for a complete list of toll free numbers.)

Note: Effective 4 September 2007 - To locate External vacancy announcements for locations other than those serviced by Bolling AFB, applicants can actively search for AFPC vacancy announcements on the OPM USAJOBS website at http://jobsearch.USAJOBS.opm.gov/agency_search.asp. Enter "AFPC" in the "Department/Agency Name" field or by selecting "Air Force Personnel Center" from the list of Department, Independent Agency, Bureau or Organizational Sub-Component names in the next field. An applicant may also receive information about vacancies meeting his or her interests by using the OPM job notification service "Job Search Agents," available through the "My USAJOBS" account.

Step 3: Self-Nominate

Your third and final step is to "self-nominate" (apply) for job vacancies.

Important Note: Submission of a resume and supplemental data alone does not provide consideration for job vacancies. You must self-nominate to be considered for any position. Additionally, you must meet the eligibility and qualifications requirements as stated in the vacancy announcement. Carefully read the "Who May Apply (e.g., eligibility)" criteria listed in the vacancy announcement to determine whether you are eligible to be considered. If you do not meet the eligibility requirements, you will be rated as "outside the area of consideration." (See pages 4-11 for standard eligibility categories, veterans' preference eligibility, and overseas unique eligibilities and appointing authorities if you are interested in applying for vacancies in foreign areas).

Note: Air Force bases that do not receive full personnel servicing from the Air Force Personnel Center have their own separate application processes for "External" vacancy announcements. (See page 22 for a listing)

Once you have found a vacancy announcement in which you are interested, you may submit your resume and supplemental data and self-nominate through the AFPC Civilian Employment website or the AFPC Job Line (IVRS). If you are an External applicant, you will need your social security number and personal identification number (PIN) for either option. You need the 11-digit announcement (e.g., 04NOV123456) number if self-nominating on the AFPC Job Line. We recommend that you retain each vacancy announcement number for future reference.

It is very important to read the entire vacancy announcement before you submit your self-nomination.

Important: When you search for vacancies without logging into the website, you will be able to view all External and Internal vacancy announcements. If you are an External applicant and log into the system to self-nominate, the website will show you only External vacancy announcements since you are not eligible to self-nominate for Internal vacancies.

TIP! Be sure that you see the self-nomination confirmation screen before exiting the website. If you do not receive a confirmation screen, your self-nomination was not completed. We recommend that you print a copy of the confirmation for future reference.

Important!!! - To receive consideration for External vacancy announcements for locations other than those serviced by Bolling AFB, applicants must apply directly for vacancies in which they are interested using the procedures contained in the “How to Apply” section of each vacancy announcement posted on the OPM USAJOBS website.

What Happens Next?

Checking on the status of your self-nomination(s):

After you have self-nominated, a Human Resources Specialist will review your resume to determine whether or not you possess the appropriate eligibility for referral and/or whether or not you meet the qualifications for the position for which you self-nominated. Once we have reviewed all self-nominations, we will assign a tracking code to inform you of the status of your self-nomination. You may check the status of your self-nominations through our website or the Air Force Job Line (IVRS) for up to 365 days after the announcement closing date.

If you are determined to be qualified based on initial screening and ranked within reach of referral, you may be referred to the hiring authority for consideration. It is solely the option of the selecting official to interview candidates. It is more likely that selections are made after a comprehensive review of the resumes. If you are tentatively selected, you will be notified by telephone and/or e-mail to request your supporting documents to verify your eligibility for appointment.

Note: If you are selected for a temporary or term appointment, your resume and supplemental data become inactive. If you wish to be considered for future job opportunities you must submit a new resume and supplemental data after you have been appointed.

Reminder: If you applied for an External (non-competitive) USAJOBS vacancy announcement at a location other than those serviced by Bolling AFB, you must check the status of your applications via your USAJOBS profile or Application Manager Account. For more information, visit the AFPC Employment Website at <http://ask.afpc.randolph.af.mil/civemploy>

TIPS!

- ★ If your resume has expired (External Applicants) and you submitted your resume through the AFPC Resume Writer, just simply access the AFPC website and select the Resume Writer menu option. Click on "Update Resume" and make any necessary changes, then click "Submit."
- ★ If you are a permanent Air Force civil service employee and want to self-nominate on the AFPC Employment Website for an "External" vacancy announcement for a position serviced by Bolling AFB, Washington DC, you must have a current resume and supplemental data on file.
